MARCUS COLDSNOW SCHOLARSHIP RECOMMENDATION FORM

Marcus Coldsnow was a special education teacher as well as a football coach and track coach at Parma Senior High from 2006-2012. He believed in hard work, determination, and tough love and as a result helped many students achieve success and reach their potential both in the classroom and on the field. Marcus was diagnosed with colon cancer in the fall of 2008 and fought a long hard battle, all the while continuing to teach and coach. He led by example and always practiced what he preached, never giving up and fighting until the very end. This scholarship is meant to recognize a student/athlete who has an IEP/504 plan and embodies the qualities that Marcus displayed and in return expected from his students and players. This scholarship is meant to be for a student who works very hard in the classroom and on the field.
