Over the last three days, Autumn Zooks has battled and been tested both mentally and physically at the OHSAA State tournament. This tournament is arguably one of the most prestigious state wrestling tournaments in America. This year was even more special because this was the first year that Ohio recognized girls wrestling as its own sport. Autumn competed in a bracket of 16 girls all fighting for a shot at being THE state champion.

Autumn wrestled with intensity and passion and finished 3 & 3 securing herself a 6th place finish in the entire state of Ohio at 140lbs. She carried on Parma Wrestling's proud tradition of success through her efforts this past weekend and has now written herself into the pages of our history books.

Way to get it done for the Parma Redmen!!!
