Dear Parents/Guardians of PCSD Elementary School Students,

This letter is to tell you about a valuable opportunity for you and your child. Parma City Schools has a partnership with Nancy Lowrie and Associates (NLA), a local organization that provides helpful behavioral health counseling and services for students in our schools. All NLA therapists are licensed and masters level clinicians specializing in child and adolescent behavioral needs and issues, including:

- Following Directions and Accepting "No"
- Making and Keeping Friends
- Teasing, Bullying, Social skills
- Acting-out, Anger Management, ADHD
- Anxiety, Depression, and Mood issues
- Getting along with Brothers, Sisters, and Family

Our NLA therapists are located in our school buildings to help your child while they are in school, and enable them to...

Develop Healthy Confidence & Self-Worth	Develop Behavioral Self-Control	Develop Important Social Skills	Build Healthy Relationships	Perform Better in School
--	--	--	--	-------------------------------------

This is a tremendous opportunity for students to develop and grow. Best of all, NLA services are covered by nearly all health insurance plans and NLA handles all of the paperwork. If you are interested in services for your child, or would like to learn more, simply complete the form below and send it to school with your child, or mail / fax it to the school address above. An NLA therapist will then contact you to answer your questions or set up a time to meet.

Sincerely, your Elementary School Principals,

Renee Dzurnak – Principal, Dentzler Elementary
 Dr. Karl Schneider – Principal, John Muir Elementary
 Stephanie Boka – Principal, Pleasant Valley Elementary
 Steve Perry – Principal, Ridge-Brook Elementary

Jacqueline Marconi – Principal, Green Valley Elementary
 Wendy Jewell – Principal, Parma Park Elementary
 LaShonda Abdussatar – Principal, Renwood Elementary
 Theodore Bickley – Principal, Thoreau Park Elementary
