The Patriot Pyramid week 5 Theme is "Cooperation". This means setting aside differences and working together as a team to achieve a common goal. It is important to understand that you will not agree with everyone you encounter in life, but you will be put in a situation where cooperation is needed between both parties to accomplish a task. Consider different perspectives when interacting with people and try to see things from their viewpoint.

"Tonight's boys basketball game against North Royalton is Senior Night. Come out and cheer Logan Sasse, Mike "The Hammer" Pappas, and Doreon "Bam" Graham in their last home game.
