"A Little-Known Black History Fact"

Thurgood Marshall was a Lawyer and civil rights activist. As an attorney, he successfully argued before the Court the case of Brown v. the Board of Education in 1954, which declared unconstitutional racial segregation in American public schools. He graduated with honors from Lincoln University in 1930. After being rejected by the University of Maryland Law School because of his color, Marshall attended Howard University Law School instead where he received his degree in 1933, ranking first in his class. After years of remarkable work as an attorney, Thurgood Marshall became the first African American to serve in the U.S. Supreme Court. Officially nominated by President Lyndon B. Johnson in 1967, he served as a justice until 1991. Go forth and be inspired by the hard work and dedication of this great leader to power through your circumstances.

The Boys Freshman basketball team won their third straight home game last Friday beating Holy Name, 63 - 60. Justin Chong scored a team season high 24 points in the win.
