Title I Updates:

We have started our One Book One School book, Fenway and Hattie. Each child should have received their book and packet. They are loving the morning trivia questions! Please read each chapter nightly at home and answer the trivia questions. The trivia questions are due the next day to be entered into a drawing to win a daily prize. Follow the daily reading calendar. Take turns reading with your child. Ask them questions that start with who, what, when, where, how and why. Ask them to predict what will happen next and what in the text makes them think that. These questions help kids become active readers who are able to make connections in a text. Enjoy reading!
